2. WHAT IS THE NATURE OF THE CONDUCT COMPLAINED OF?

(The Tribunal can only consider your complaint if it comes under one or more of the following headings. Please tick the box or boxes which apply to your complaint.)

- Conduct which you believe to have been carried out in relation to you, by or on behalf of, any of the UK intelligence services. That conduct may relate to you, your property or your communications. You can complain of that conduct whether or not it involves the use of an investigatory power under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 ('RIPA').
- Your communications by post or your telecommunications have been intercepted e.g. telephone tapping or interference with your mail.
- There has been entry onto or interference with your property or with your wireless telegraphy.
- Surveillance by a public authority has taken place which has resulted, or is likely to result, in private information about you being obtained.
- Surveillance concerning you has been carried out, or is being carried out, by a public authority in relation to anything taking place on any residential premises or in any private vehicle.
- Covert human intelligence has been used in relation to you, e.g. a public authority has used, or is using, a personal or other relationship for the purpose of getting information about you.
- You have been given a notice under section 49 relating to investigation of electronic data protected by encryption.
- Data has been obtained relating to a communications system.
- The carrying out of surveillance by a foreign police or customs officer (within the meaning of section 76A of RIPA).

3. WHAT IS YOUR COMPLAINT?
