

Update to Section 2 “What is the Nature of the conduct complained of?”

Through Statutory Instrument 2018 No 341, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal has been updated with effect from 12 March 2018 to include complaints in relation to:

- the giving and varying of a national security notice as well as conduct under a notice
- the giving and varying of a technical capability notice as well as conduct under a notice

A national security notice is a notice given by the Secretary of State under section 252 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016 requiring a telecommunications operator in the United Kingdom to take such specified steps as the Secretary of State considers necessary in the interests of national security.

A technical capability notice is a notice given by the Secretary of State under section 253 of the Investigatory Powers 2016 imposing obligations on a postal or telecommunications operator for the purpose of securing that the operator is able to provide assistance in relation to certain warrants and authorisations under the 2016 Act.

If your complaint relates to either of these, please complete the section below.
